The Fairtrade Fortnight Quiz

1. Which of these fruits can you buy with the FAIRTRADE Mark?

2. Where does cotton come from?
   a. a flower  b. a tree  c. a vine  d. a cotton worm

3. Who grows Fairtrade olives? .................................................................

4. Is the cocoa pod
   a. a vegetable  b. a fruit  c. a flower  d. a leaf

5. What does this map show?
   a. where apples are grown  b. where Fairtrade food is sold
   c. where cocoa is grown  d. where chocolate is made

6. Which famous civil rights activist said this?
   “Before you finish eating your breakfast in the morning, you’ve depended on more than half the world.”

7. Name three Fairtrade products that you can’t eat or drink.

8. How do farmers harvest cocoa?
   a. ferment the cocoa pods, break them open then dry the beans
   b. break open cocoa pods, ferment the cocoa beans then dry them
   c. dry the cocoa pods, ferment them and then break them open

9. Fairtrade rice helps farmers in Africa and Asia earn enough money from what they grow, but how many varieties of rice are there in the world?
   a. 5  b. 200  c. 5,000  d. 40,000

10. Which beans go into Fairtrade Baked Beans, grown by farmers in Inner Mongolia?
    a. White kidney beans
    b. Soybeans
    c. Green beans
    d. Jelly beans
The Fairtrade Fortnight Quiz - answers

1. c. grapes and d. oranges
2. a. a flower
3. Palestinian farmers
4. b. a fruit
5. c. where cocoa is grown
6. Martin Luther King
7. Shower gel, body lotion, clothes, jewellery, soap, body scrub, beauty products – made using Fairtrade honey, Fairtrade cotton, Fairtrade gold, Fairtrade shea butter, Fairtrade cocoa, Fairtrade mango or Fairtrade sugar
8. b. break open cocoa pods, ferment the cocoa beans then dry them
9. d. 40,000
10. a. White kidney beans